KUALA LUMPUR, Nov 5 -- Malaysian Timber Council (MTC) has appointed the Malaysian Palm Oil Certification Council chairman Muhtar Suhaili as its new chief executive officer (CEO) effective Nov 1.

"With his vast experience and knowledge in various industries and multinational organisations, Muhtar will be instrumental in enhancing MTC's efforts in bringing the Malaysian timber industry to greater heights," chairman Mazli Zakuan Mohd Noor said in a statement today.

Prior to joining MTC, Muhtar was the lead project engineer in Shell Malaysia, where he worked for 15 years.

He has extensive knowledge in managing mega projects, business planning, business improvement initiatives, manpower planning and human resource development.
